

Education Fast Forward (EFF)

Inaugural Meeting 1 November 2010

Agenda

Introduction
15:00	Welcome to all participants Explanation of aims and agenda Explanation of engagement and making contributions	Gavin Dykes, Education Expert and Co-Moderator
Presentations for debate
15:10	“The right to digital skills development should be adopted internationally as a Basic Human Right”	Bálint Magyar, Member, Governing Board, European Institute of Innovation and Technology, Former Minister of Education (1996–1998; 2002–2006) and guest provocateur
15:20	“In the digital age creativity in education will play a critical role, even more critical than STEM education in achieving national economic success”	Lord Puttnam of Queensgate, CBE, Award-Winning Filmmaker, President of UNICEF UK 2002–2009, Chairman of FutureLab and guest provocateur
15:30	Moderated Session – Contributions from other EFF members	Gavin Dykes, Education Expert and Co-Moderator and John Connell, Director of the Scottish Schools Digital Network and Co-Moderator, Cisco
17:05	Contributions brought to a close	Gavin Dykes, Education Expert and Co-Moderator and John Connell, Director of the Scottish Schools Digital Network and Co-Moderator, Cisco
17:10	Feedback session – voting	Gavin Dykes, Education Expert and Co-Moderator and John Connell, Director of the Scottish Schools Digital Network and Co-Moderator, Cisco
17:20	Conclusions	Tony Cann, Founder, Promethean
17:30	Close – How to continue the debate	Jim Wynn, Chief Education Officer, Promethean

PLEASE NOTE THAT TIMES ARE GREENWICH MEAN TIME (GMT)

Supported by

